A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

Hello – and welcome to the latest issue of LAVERNOICH'S LOUNGE. As I write this, Halloween's only a few days away – not exactly one of my favorite holidays. Fortunately, two of my favorite holidays – Thanksgiving and Christmas – are fast approaching. And I've already got some surprises planned towards the end of this year, aside from my soon-to-be-published novel THE JANUS TERROR. All 100% treats – and zero tricks.

This issue's cover should give you a good clue to one of those surprises – as you'll find out when you read the CHAMELEONS, INC. CONCLAVE section starting on the next page. And as the old saying goes – you ain't heard (and seen) nothing yet, especially if you're fans of podcasts. (Consider that a subtle clue).

Of course, I haven't forgotten the other sectors which make up my creative universe – including BEYOND THE UNKNOWN – and wait until you see the other surprises that I plan on unleashing, not only in the coming weeks, but also next year (which'll – hopefully – begin with someone else residing in the White House, for those of you who've long realized that Reality TV ends doing more harm than good to everybody and everything, including American politics).

As usual – I hope you enjoy this very issue you're now reading. At the same time, I hope that you actually check out – and purchase – some of my various wares, with all of them making damn good holiday gifts (and are far more enjoyable than even a single episode of Dancing with the Stars). Until then – please enjoy all that November has to offer, while hoping that 2020 will be far better, especially if Reality TV ends up both dead and forgotten (which'll really help make America great again).
