A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

Welcome to the second issue of Lavernoich's Lounge, my official newsletter -- and yes, I've managed to do some writing despite my somewhat tight schedule and frequent obligations to my family members and other people in my life (which I definitely won't get into -- at least for right now). And as I write this, my schedule over the next few weeks is about to get busier, and especially as graduation time approaches.

As for my creative plans for the future -- and believe me, I've got plenty of them -- as well as what's been happening with me over the past month, please check out not only my newsletter's various sections, but also yours truly on the Internet. That is, unless the unexpected happens (and while I do like surprises, it's far better to be forewarned -- and especially if you have a career like mine).

In the meantime -- enjoy. (And please let me know what you think.)

THE LATEST NEWS ON BEYOND THE UNKNOWN

This is to let you know that I'm currently working on a two-part script for what I hope will be a possible Beyond The Unknown monthly comic book. Already, I've completed the script for Part One – and I'm now working on the script for Part Two. In the coming weeks, I plan to draw public attention to the Beyond The Unknown comic book – to the point of getting a number of comic book talents to collaborate with me and turn this project into a reality.

Once that happens, the finished product will be submitted to ComiXology – and if it's approved by the powers that be, don't be surprised to see Beyond The Unknown#1 on sale later on this year. And since I'm already planning Beyond The Unknown as a comic book anthology title, any comic book writers and artists – both well-known and newcomers – can contribute to it (and I plan to do my fair share of scripts for it should it become a reality). More news on that in future issues!

In the meantime, for those of you who still aren't aware of Beyond The Unknown – the short story E-book collection which will (hopefully) begat the comic book (and more) – if you want to learn more about the E-book itself (as well as where to purchase a copy of it):
