A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

IT'S BEEN AN INTERESTING YEAR -- SO FAR --

It's also been a somewhat difficult year – and one unlike any that we've had to deal with, the facts associated with which are immune to sugar-coating. And as the summer season is about to give way to both Autumn and Winter – the rest of this year (and beyond that) will prove to be both interesting and difficult (and not just because this is an election year).

Despite having my ninth book published earlier this summer (and there'll be a plug for it in the BOOK BUNGALOW section of this issue) and laying, in part, the groundwork for what I've got planned creatively in the future – I'm still a bit behind on my creative projects, due in part to yours truly resuming as much of my normal life as possible in the past month or two (which isn't easy, even in the COVID-19 era).

And yet, like you, I continue to move forward – hoping that things will somewhat get better, while also being aware that both the unexpected and unpredictable can happen when nobody sees it coming (and the problems connected to them can't be easily erased by magic – or, in my case, any computer word processing programs which I use to help unleash my creative imagination).

What I'm promoting within the pages of this newsletter – and which I hope you'll check out and purchase – will offer you a bit of escapism, which all of us definitely need right now, though we definitely shouldn't ignore what's happening in the world that we live in. After all, staying in touch with actual reality – even if it's very complicated these days – may be one of several important tools needed to get through this current situation (and any that we might face in the future). As usual, I hope that you enjoy this issue. And please remember

Please stay both safe --- and well.

IN REGARDS TO THE COMIC BOOK PROJECT VIA

BEYOND THE UNKNOWN
PATREON | --!

Over a year ago, I launched my BEYOND THE UNKNOWN Comic Book Project on Patreon's website. My vision for the proposed BTU comic book was to make it a monthly anthology comic book featuring original stories and artwork by yours truly and other top comic book talents, with financial support from the public (including you who are reading this) and some great incentives for those wanting to donate.

THE ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATION THAT YOU'RE VIEWING IS LINKED TO THE PARADOX PUZZLE -- THE COMIC BOOK SCRIPT THAT I WROTE WHICH I HOPE WOULD HELP LAUNCH THE PROPOSED BEYOND THE UNKNOWN COMIC BOOK (AND FOR MORE CONCERNING THAT -- PLEASE BEAR WITH ME):

However, as I mentioned in the most recent episode of the BTU Audio Podcast (and for the appropriate podcast website links to not only that, but also the CHAMELEONS, INC. Audio Podcast, please visit the MEDIA MANSION section in this very issue), I'm currently rethinking my Patreon project, which'll -- more or less -- veer away from its original purpose. More news concerning that -- and not just in future issues of LAVERNOICH'S LOUNGE and future episodes of the BTU Audio Podcast. (And if you think that I've forgot to mention BTU's YouTube channel -- again, please check out the aforementioned MEDIA MANSION in this issue!)

AS FOR THE PARADOX PUZZLE --!

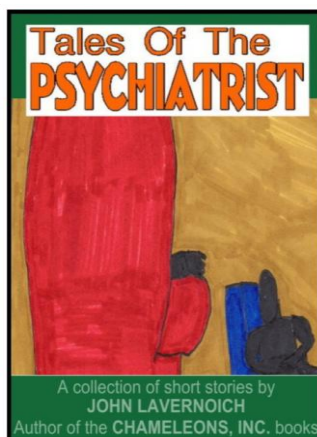

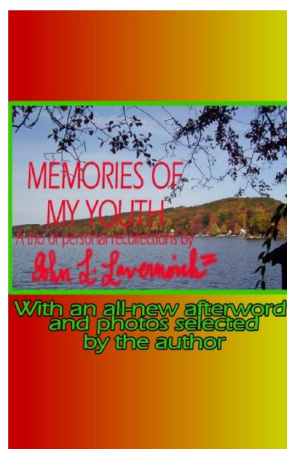

That comic book story might yet see the light of day -- in fact, sooner than you might think! (And in today's hi-tech world -- that's a real probability.) More news concerning that coming soon -- and not just in future issues of this very newsletter. (And if you need further proof -- please be on the lookout for an upcoming video on BTU's YouTube channel. That'll definitely pique your interest!)
