A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

Hello – and welcome to the latest issue of LAVERNOICH'S LOUNGE, which spotlights – in part – my creative efforts, in the hope that you'll actually check them out (and perhaps purchase them as well). After all, all of us do need one or more diversions from the many realities already facing us, and especially after what's already happened in over the past year, which we can't forget, no matter how hard we try.

I've been trying my best to work on my creative efforts, including resuming writing my next book, THE JANUS TERROR, while trying to keep up with my other commitments separate from my various careers – not an easy task to accomplish. (Then again, moving on with my life and careers has always been a struggle.) And still, I persevere. I have to – especially when you never know what the future'll throw at you (and hiring a psychic to help predict your future's definitely out of the question).

I've mentioned it before – but I'll say it again: Even in the times that we now live in, we shouldn't ignore the escapism that's essential to helping us get through life's rough patches, if only momentarily. And in the professions that I've already chosen – one's imagination can go a long way when it comes to both entertaining and enlightening the general public. After all – isn't imagination part of the greatest adventure of all – namely, life itself?

As usual, please enjoy this issue – and equally important, please give what I'm offering a try. In fact, please support us independent authors, artists, filmmakers, etc. – what we have to offer'll both surprise and delight you. (And it's way better than watching Survivor on TV – and less insulting to your intelligence.)
