A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

Welcome to #4 of Lavernoich's Lounge – where yours truly answers the musical question: “What the hell took you so long to create and publish this very issue?”

The simple truth is that I've been very busy between this past July and the present – and not just from a career standpoint.

Actually, I haven't been idle, career-wise – I've written several short stories and Internet articles that've been published in the past few months (and for that, I direct you to my Book Bungalow page). I've also crafted some videos for both YouTube and Vimeo (and to learn more about them, go to my Video Villa page). And I've been working on several additional creative projects which I'll explain on the following pages – some of which I hope to release in 2017.

As 2016 gives way to 2017, I hope to accomplish more and excel in my chosen professions – and I'm hoping that you'll support my creative efforts. So I'll end this by saying simply – Happy Holidays.

THE CHAMELEONS CONCLAVE INC.®

The latest news on CHAMELEONS, INC.

WHAT'S THE PURPOSE OF THIS ILLO?

In case you're interested, this is an original cover sketch for the next Chameleons, Inc. novel – for which I've already started to work out the book's basic plot, and which I hope to have published and on sale by late next year. I'll give you more info concerning the book, not only in my newsletter, but also on the Chameleons' official website. And as for the book's title, based on the drawing which you're now viewing, it's called – Target: Chameleons. (But trust me – the Chameleons are far from being clay pigeons, to the bad guys' total chagrin!)

THE LATEST NEWS ON BEYOND THE UNKNOWN

johnlavernoich.weebly.com/beyond-the-unknown.html

In case you're interested about the drawing that you're now viewing -- it's definitely connected to the first script for the proposed Beyond The Unknown comic book, which I hope to turn into a reality in 2017. (And I'm already planning to drum up public and financial support for it -- more news on that soon!)

AND IN THE MEANTIME --?

Don't be surprised if I unleash another BTU-related project in time for Christmas -- I'll give more info concerning that on my official website in the coming weeks. (And also don't be surprised if BTU gets its own official website before 2016 ends -- schedule permitting, of course!)

In the meantime, don't forget to purchase and read
