AFEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

I've managed to keep busy with my creative projects -- and there's several already brewing in my brain, some of which I'll explain in this very issue (the cover alone oughta be a tip-off to you who's reading this). And the projects that I've done? Well, with Christmas coming -- my books, lithographs, and more make great gifts.

And that isn't all, folks -- I am thinking about 2024 and beyond, with some of my projects-in-the-works a major part of them (unless the worst really happens to not just me -- and not just the fact that '24's a U.S. Presidential campaign year).

I hope you enjoy this issue – and equally hopeful that you'll check out (and purchase) my creative efforts (especially since the holiday season's fast approaching). Those of you wishing to get in touch with me – and not just with comments, praise, and brickbats on this issue of LAVERNOICH'S LOUNGE – can reach me at ilayernoich2008@hotmail.com.

THE CHANGLEONS CONCLAVE

The latest news on CHAMELEONS, INC.

CHAMELEONS, INC. – the band of female detectives with a difference (several, to be precise) – was my first literary franchise (and their first novel was also the first that I ever wrote over twenty years ago), which began life as an untold TV-movie script (and there's a good chance you might see the Chameleons on-screen in the near future – more on that shortly!). But first –!

These are the covers to the first three CHAMELEONS, INC. books which helped launch the franchise (and a fourth book's currently in the works) -- to purchase your copies of them from Amazon.com, please click on the aforementioned covers below:

And for the latest news concerning the CHAMELEONS (including when their official website'll be relaunched) – please click these logos!

And hopefully — now that the WGA and SAG strikes are over — I'll resume working on another draft of the screenplay for the CODE NAME: CHAMELEONS theaterical feature film which I hope will become a reality within the next year or two (more news concerning that — and not just in future issues of this newsletter!).

BEYOND THE UNKNOWN, of course, is my second literary franchise -- science fiction and fantasy with a difference (several, to be frank). To purchase the first three BIU books via Amazon.com -- what else? -- please click on the book covers that you're now viewing:
