A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

November is one of my favorite months – and thankfully, it has nothing to do with the increasingly cold weather. Thanksgiving's definitely on its way – and more than that. (You can certainly guess what I'm referring to, as we approach the end of 2018.)

This issue's cover should give you a few ideas for what to give for holiday gifts this year (or even birthday presents, for those whose birthdays are in both November and December). If you're wondering about one of those gift ideas plastered on the cover – all I'll say is this: please go to Page#5 of this very issue.

Even as 2018 is about to give way to 2019, I'm working on a number of creative projects which I hope will be a reality – hopefully, before and during the new year (and beyond that) – some I'll get to later on this issue; the rest you'll learn on the Internet (and elsewhere) as the holidays near.

I'm hoping that you'll not only enjoy this issue – but also support my creative efforts, as well as those of other independent authors, artists, publishers, etc., who'd like you to check out and purchase their wares. Until then – keep on web surfin'!
