A FEW WORDS FROM YOURS TRULY

Hello – and Happy New Year.

Like most of you now reading this, I'm looking forward to 2019, with several new creative projects of my own – one of which is spotlighted not only on the cover of this very issue, but also in the Book Bungalow section. (And yes, it'll definitely become a reality – at least, that's the hope.)

Of course, there's more to yours truly than just unveiling new creative projects to the whole world. But then, that's one of the purposes of this newsletter – right? And let's face it, us independent authors, artists, filmmakers, etc. need all the public support that we can get (unlike a certain U.S. President who's already done far too much damage to the country's reputation – you can certainly guess whom I'm referring to).

I fervently hope that you'll support not only my creative efforts, but also those of other creative artists – and not just this year. After all, we might just surprise you when you least expect it.

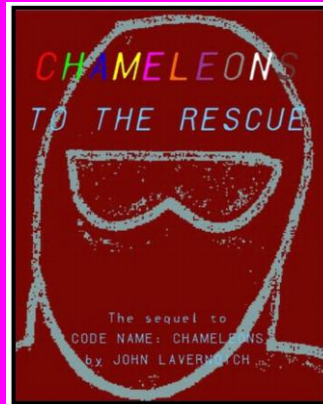

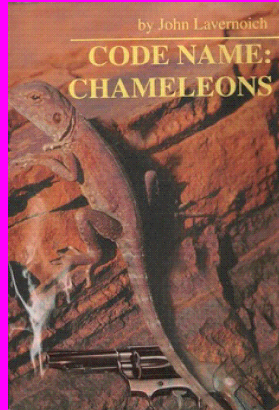

Oh, and one more thing – keep on web surfin'. (Really.)

WHAT EXACTLY IS THE JANUS TERROR?

It's my next creative project -- something that I've been planning to do for over a decade, yet never got around to doing. Until now.

Starting this month, I plan to write THE JANUS TERROR as a prose novel -- partially it's a bit easier to do it that way than as a comic book limited series (but that doesn't mean that I've given up on the idea of launching new projects in that particular medium).
